

APPLY BY NOV 05, 2023

Calling All Future Scholars

Interested in research & considering a PhD?

JOIN AWARDSS-PLUS!

The UArizona College of Education + Undergraduate Research Opportunities Consortium (UROC) have teamed up to offer the Access, Wellness, and Relational Determinants of Student Success (AWARDSS-PLUS) program - a flexible, high quality, competency-based research apprenticeship with potential for real-world impact on US Education. This program was designed to be culturally inclusive for nontraditional and underrepresented students.

Funded by the Institute of Educational Sciences (#R305B210019 & #R305B160003) with summer tuition waivers and fees generously offered by the graduate college.

12 Month Research Experience

SPRING '24

SUMMER '24

FALL '24

ELIGIBILITY

Orientation + Field Experience ▲ Research Proposal Development
Writing Course ▲ Educational Research Methods E-Series ▲
Professional & Career Development Opportunities

Mentored Experience in a Research Apprenticeship (matched by interest with a mentor) ▲ Research Report Writing Course ▲ GRE Prep Course + Test ▲ Formal Presentation (Report, Poster, & Oral) + 8
Focused Sessions Supporting Personal Development

Graduate School Prep Course ▲ Continued Research Assistantship
(with stipend) ▲ Personalized Assistance with Graduate School Applications + 8 Focused Sessions on PLUS topics such as publishing, policy, and advocacy.

GPA: 3.0+ Major or Overall ▲ Status: Junior, Senior, Post-Bacc (within 5 yrs), OR current Master's Student ▲ Intent to Pursue PhD ▲ Underrepresented in Academia

All AWARDSS-PLUS students may receive up to $9,200 stipends and $2,900 in professional development and travel funds! Post-Baccs receive an extra $900 for tuition.

Get in touch!
awardss.arizona.edu
coe-awardss@arizona.edu

Michelle M. Perfect, Ph.D., PI
Associate Professor Disability and Psychoeducational Studies,
Psychology, & Pediatrics
College of Education

Brandy A. B. Perki, Ph.D., Co-PI
Associate Professor of Practice
Organizational Leadership & Psychology
College of Applied Science & Technology

Or apply directly at grad.arizona.edu/UROC
by November 5th, 2023